BURR PRINTING CO. Owners

Entered at the postoffice at Alliance, Neb., for transmission through the mails as second class matter. Published Tuesday and Friday.

GEORGE L. BURR, JR., Editor
EDWIN M. BURR, Business Mgr.

Official newspaper of the City of Alliance; official newspaper of Box Butte County.

Owned and published by The Burr Printing Company, George L. Burr, Jr., President; Edwin M. Burr, Vice President.

In our hour of tribulation following the denial of the census bureau to grant Alliance a recount, there are a few stray rays of hope. We are told that our percentage of gain in population is greater than that for the country as a whole, for the state as a whole, and that only a few cities can equal it or go it one better. In still another way we have cause for congratulation. Few cities of this size in America have the sort of a population that we have. If quality counts for anything, Alliance has the world beat. There are mighty few of the ordinary type of immigrants in Alliance. We don't have any problem of how to handle a large population class, which has no standard of living and is willing to live any kind of a way of work for any kind of a wage, in order to get ahead. Box Butte county is filled with real people, and pretty nearly every one that is counted ranks as a man or woman in morals, in intelligence and in every way that really matters. Suppose we had five thousand "hunkies" added to our population—would we be ahead—or would we lose? Would it be a better city, or would it be less pleasant to live in? Alliance is the most fortunate of any city of its size in all Nebraska. Do you know of any other town where you could take the first dozen men you meet and find all of them human, companionable, pleasant and agreeable—the sort of fellows you could spend a month with on a camping trip and come back feeling more cheerful than when you left? Alliance is that kind of a place, and whether the census bureau concedes us all our population doesn't really matter a tinker's dam. We've got at least five thousand now—and within a mighty few years there won't be a city in the western part of the state that will have anything on us in any way.

Some men are poor because they are honest and some are honest because they are poor.

HEMINGFORD.

The new building being erected for the temporary housing for a part of the grades is under roof and will be completed before very long. This is, however, nothing like adequate provision for the increase in the attendance this year.

On Thursday morning the superintendent began the practice of the fire drill and the building was emptied in forty-two seconds by means of the stairway.

Mrs. A. S. Eneyart of Marsland spent Wednesday and Thursday night at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Alex Muirhead. She left Thursday for University Place where she will visit relatives and friends for some time. She will be away from home most of the winter visiting at various places.

Mrs. Mattie Hoppock was down to Alliance last Saturday and had an operation performed by Dr. Baskin. A tumor was taken from her shoulder and she is recovering nicely.

Rev. Frank Williams, formerly of Marsland, residing now in Merrill, was in Hemingford Tuesday night at the home of Rev. and Mrs. A. J. May. He left Wednesday for his home where he is having fine success in the work of the church.

The following visitors were in Alliance Wednesday: Mr. Lions, Mr. Mackler, Mr. and Mrs. Lyman, Mr. and Mrs. Alex Olds, Rev. A. J. May, Bill Walker from northwest of Hemingford, C. W. Lockwood and Walter Jones.

The ninth grade made a trip to the fossil beds today (Friday) where they can get some real lessons from the strange formations and the specimens there.

On last Friday night the Epworth league gave a hard time social in the basement of the Methodist church and there was a crowd of more than fifty, plenty to eat and lots of fun. Some real specimens of hard times were on display. Professor Embree and wife attracted the attention of the crowd for the evening as those having the best make-up.

Dr. S. A. Dorey of Denver spoke in a union service at the Congregational church last Sunday morning in the interest of the near east relief society. The total amount of collections and subscriptions while he was in town was around $500. C. W. Lockwood was elected chairman of the county organization and Messrs. John Wiltsey and Ford in the First State Bank were selected as local secretary and treasurer. The ladies' aid societies of the two churches were appointed to receive clothing and provisions for the society.

Two car loads of coal came into town Wednesday shipped to Mr. Walker and was gone before most of the citizens who needed coal knew of it. The school was fortunate in getting one car of it.

At the Churches.

The ladies of the M. E. church met at the basement Wednesday afternoon and tied quilts and comforts—about five or six. After that they had sandwiches and cake (many kinds) and fruit salad and pickles and drank coffee, etc., until well, all were satisfied and more. Mrs. Hilker and Mrs. Plahn entertained. They sure did.

The ladies' aid of the congregational church met Thursday at the parsonage for some work which they accomplished in good shape.

The official board of the Congregational church met at the parsonage on Monday night of this week to attend to the regular business.

The membership day at the M. E. church last Sunday was well attended and all the names of the members called and there was at least a mighty good representation though they were not all there. Next Sunday members will be received into the church at the morning service.

The Congregational church will observe rally day in the Sunday school and all who have ever attended or expect to attend are wanted next Sunday sure.

The sale of the estate of the late W. N. Wilkinson, living twenty-eight miles northeast of Alliance, last Wednesday was well attended. The livestock brought especially good prices, two two-year-old bulls eligible to registry bringing $160 each; one herd of cattle containing fifty-two head brought $58; forty-three cows sold in one bunch for $60 a head and a number of calves averaged $28.25. Farm machinery brought comparatively low prices. The Wilkinson ranch has been sold to a Missouri man, who will devote his energies to raising mules, three carloads of breeding stock having already arrived. The Wilkinson family will live on another farm near Beatrice.

BIRTHS

October 5—To Mr. and Mrs. John T. Claver, a daughter.
October 5—To Mr. and Mrs. Gerhard J. Naber, a son.

The Ecnaila Campfire girls met Wednesday evening at the home of their guardian, Mrs. T. A. Cross.

Vegetarians are men who smoke the cigars of today.

BOY SCOUTS GIVE EXHIBITION OF WORK

The Alliance boy scout troops gave an exhibition of some of their work and their ceremonies to an interested audience at Reddish hall Thursday evening. The hall was filled with men and women as well as prospective scouts. The following program was given:

Bugle, "To the Colors."
Flag raising ceremony. Scout oath and law. Callisthenics. Pyramid building: Bridge, chariot, circle, new, four high kneeling.
First aid: Artificial respiration, splints on leg, litter, tourniquet, spiral reverse, head bandage, sling.
Method of carry: Fireman's lift, fireman's drag.
Knot tying. Bridge building.
Cooking: Beefsteak on a stick, twist on a stick, flap jacks.
Dialogue: Scout knowledge.
Taps by bugle.

It's a Great Little Help in Business

This habit of promptness—being on time at the work—getting all set for the day's business so you can get away fast when the wheels begin to turn—certainly speeds output. It's a foundation principle of efficiency.

It means getting up early and having time for the toilet and a good breakfast. With these darkening mornings that means an alarm clock. And that means Thiele's.

All styles in the best makes. Continuous and intermittent alarms with shut off levers. Top and back bells. Eight day and 24 hour movements. Extra good values.

WILL PROTEST RATE INCREASE

"Your petitioner desires to increase all of its exchange rates and charges ten per cent and desires to modify the rates and charges in effect for toll service by increasing the differential between person to person calls and station to station calls from twenty-five to forty per cent and increasing all other differentials accordingly."

The commission has fixed Thursday, November 4, at 9:30 o'clock a. m., at the offices of the commission as the time and place for hearing in this matter. The commission would be pleased to have representative citizens of your community present at that time and opportunity will be given to make such showing in this matter as might be desired."

Tonight, at the Masonic Temple building, will be held a wrestling match between Steve Cannon, local grappler, and Harry Mamas, traveling with the Westernman Bros. Carnival. Cannon has kept in good training and should be able to give a fine account of himself. Mamas has been doing the wrestling stunt with carnivals for six or seven years, and knows a whole lot about the game. The match will be one fall to a finish, and as the two men are fairly evenly matched, should be an interesting event.

Is there no end to the demands of labor? Now the carpenters in China are striking for an increase from 20 to 35 cents a day for only 12 hours' work.

A woman for the first time has presided, for a few moments, over a national convention. Calling men to order, however, is a natural prerogative of the sex.

With sugar down to fifteen cents, the people who stocked up heavily at thirty cents will see further evidence of the injustice of things in general.

A man has brought suit on the ground that a bottle of hair tonic caused his head to swell. Did he apply it externally or internally?

If it be the Syrian custom to pay $3,000 for a wife the Syrian custom looks as if it ought to be pretty effective in keeping down bigamy.

Women's shoes are to be higher and prettier this fall. At present the eye rarely wanders as low as the footgear.

FOOTBALL TEAM AT SCOTTSBLUFF TODAY

The Alliance boys are expecting to team, accompanied by a good-sized crowd of rooters, journeyed to Scottsbluff today for the second game of the season. Last Friday they went down to defeat before the North Platte aggregation to the disheartening tune of 24 to 0. Since that time some changes have been made in the lineup, the line has been materially strengthened and additional practice has been had.

The Alliance boys are expecting to put up a stiff battle against the Scottsbluff hordes. The Scottsbluff team, too, went down to death in its first game of the season, and both teams will work hard to win.

Mrs. Etta M. Beal was appointed administratrix of the estate of Louis M. Beal, deceased, by County Judge Tash Wednesday.

The court has ruled that a man cannot rob his wife. In actual practice it generally works the other way.
